

CURRICULUM VITAE

Alessia Augelletta

EDUCATION

Alessia obtained her law degree from the University of Milan 'degli Studi' in 2009 with a thesis on production decentralization and the transfer of business units.

She obtained the qualification to professionally practice law at the Milan Court of Appeal and has been registered with the Milan Bar Association since 2012.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Before joining Failla&Partners in 2023, Alessia gained significant professional experience working in leading Italian and international law firms where she provided counsel on Italian Employment Law, Civil Law, and Commercial Law matters - in and out of court.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

Alessia focuses her practice on providing counsel on Italian labor law and social security matters – in and out of court.

Of note is her knowledge of employment contracts, self-employment contracts and agency relationships as well as individual and collective dismissals, restructurings and corporate transfers.

Alessia also provides day-to-day counsel to national and international companies on workplace management, labor relations, and employment related litigation.

LANGUAGES

Italian
English