

CURRICULUM VITAE

Carmen Flore

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

- Employment Law
- Day-to-Day Counsel
- Labor Litigation
- Social Security

LANGUAGES

Italian
English
Spanish

EDUCATION

Carmen graduated from the Law School of the University of Rome 'Roma Tre' in 2008. During her studies, she spent 6 months at the Universidad Autonoma in Madrid, Spain as part of the Erasmus international student exchange program.

In 2012 she gained her professional qualification at the Court of Appeals in Rome and today is a member of the Rome Bar Association.

Carmen strengthened her knowledge in the field of Italian Employment Law, Industrial Relations, and Social Security in 2019 – 2020 through the specialisation course organised by the Italian Association of Employment Lawyers (AGI - Avvocati Giuslavoristi Italiani).

CAREER

Carmen commenced her legal career in 2010 at the firm of Rucellai e Raffaelli where she gained a wealth of experience in the field of Italian labor litigation and the impact of bankruptcy and business crisis on the workforce.

In 2018 she joined the firm of Studio Legale Stanchi in Milan where she focused her practice on Italian labor litigation and social security matters as well as providing strategic counsel on a wide range of Italian employment law matters impacting the workplace.

Carmen joined the specialised Italian Employment Law boutique Failla&Partners as an Associate in November 2025.